ABOUT THE AWARD

Building Bermuda's Next Generation

Since 1967, the Duke of Edinburgh's International Award, Bermuda has been building confidence, resilience and leadership in young people across Bermuda. Today, 362 young people are enrolled across nine Award Centres island-wide, representing 6.8% of our eligible youth population against a global average of 0.09%.

The Award challenges participants at Bronze, Silver and Gold levels through four components: Voluntary Service, Physical Recreation, Skill Development and a team-based Adventurous Journey. Every young person participates free of charge.

An independent PwC-validated Social Value Report found that every dollar invested returns $3.58 in measurable social value, generating $1.74 million in benefit to Bermuda in 2025.

ABOUT THE GOLF CHALLENGE

A day on the course. A year of impact.

Now in its 13th year, the Annual Golf Challenge is one of Bermuda's most anticipated charity golf days. Held at Port Royal Golf Course, the event brings Bermuda's corporate community together for a day of competition, camaraderie and fundraising in support of young people island-wide. Sponsoring the Golf Challenge is an opportunity to align your organisation with one of Bermuda's most respected youth development programmes, while enjoying meaningful brand visibility before, during and after the event.
